This week in KS1 we are learning all about owls so that we can create a non-chronological report about them, using all the facts we have researched. We have also enjoyed reading The Owl Who was afraid of the dark and Owl Babies. In our Computing lesson, Turtle class searched for owl activities in Purple Mash and then created artwork, made a moving picture and also read about owls in the science section. Don't forget to log on to Purple Mash at home here:

Sting Ray have been enjoying reading the book Charlie and the Chocolate Factory during English lessons. In preparation for designing their own treats, the children spent time describing a selection of sweets, focusing on using high level vocabulary. As a reward for the amazing work that was produced, Miss Harris allowed the children to eat the sweets at the end of the lesson...yummy!

This term the children have decorated our school Wishing tree with wishes for Christmas, making a wish for something or someone, for others or for our world as a whole offers us all a chance to practice empathy and goodwill. It is also a fantastic way to get creative, and is a clear wellbeing signpost that connects us all in our shared vision in building 'compassion'.

The PTA have planned a night of festive singing for our parents. Absolutely no experience or singing skills needed... Just for fun!
What a fun way to get an evening away from the kids.
£5 a ticket—with a glass of mulled wine on entry.
All money raised goes to the school. Thank you
